

Air Quality Manager, Edmonton

Region

Canada Alberta

Description

CLIENT's division is recruiting an Air Quality Manager to join our team in Edmonton, AB.

Responsibilities:

- Manage, mentor, develop and grow an existing team of dynamic Air Quality professionals, including junior to senior engineers, scientists and technologists
- Work closely with the Calgary and Burnaby office a part of a regional team in AB & BC
- Responsible for business development and marketing, with the aim to grow the diversity and productivity of the Edmonton group in the following areas:
 - Stack testing
 - Ambient Air Monitoring Business(Airsheds)
 - Greenhouse gas management solutions, such as inventory and regulatory reporting support, verification and audit services, evaluate emission reduction options
 - Permitting and other regulatory services in Alberta and/or other jurisdictions
 - Air quality assessment including Dispersion Modeling
- Managing Projects to ensure technical quality and financial performance
- Prepare proposals, SOQ's etc., individually and within a team environment. The team might consist of other environmental investigation professionals, or professionals from other business units, including infrastructure, mining, geotechnical or materials divisions
- Marketing this team to a variety of resource related markets and western Canada based projects
- Continue to promote CLIENT's best in class work, life and cultural fundamentals
- Provide peer review and mentoring of junior staff to ensure quality and cost-effective support on air issues

Knowledge/Experience:

- B.Sc : Meteorology, Environmental Engineering or other Air Quality related education
- 10+ years experience in office / field with leading teams of specialized technologists and scientists
- Demonstrated experience in one or more of the technical areas
- Understanding of air quality regulatory framework
- Air Quality Modeling experience or exposure is considered a strong asset
- Excellent organizational, computer and writing skills
- Positive attitude and proven ability to manage and mentor in a team atmosphere
- Ability to travel when required

