

Location: Toronto

Responsibilities:

- Leadership and continuing development of our team's planning services for large-scale master planning
- Management of urban master planning assignments including management of tasks, budget and schedules
- Provision of direction and instruction to project team members including project engineers, scientists, technologists and other technical support staff
- Contribution to technical and professional leadership within the firm
- Development and enhancement of private and public sector client relationships and business growth in Ontario and international projects (Middle East)

Qualifications:

- A degree in planning
- Eight to ten years' experience, preferably including some experience in the consulting industry
- Membership in or eligibility for membership in the Canadian Institute of Planners (CIP)

Experience:

- Knowledge of master planning, legislation, policies and procedures, in particular those relevant to urban development in Ontario, and in the Middle East
- Experience working interactively with urban communities
- Demonstrated public consultation and presentation skills
- Proficient in advanced office software, word processing and the development of spreadsheets
- Working knowledge of database management and GIS
- Demonstrated success in multidisciplinary team leadership, project management, client relations and business development
- Strong communication, report writing, organization and interpersonal skills