

Risk Assessment Specialist

Responsibilities:

- Management of environmental projects involving site investigations, risk assessments, risk management plan development, and the evaluation of remedial options
- Provision of technical direction and instruction to staff including project engineers, scientists and technologists
- Liaison with public and private sector clients, enhancement of client relationships and development of new business opportunities in western Canada

Qualifications:

- A degree in environmental science, engineering or toxicology
- Licensed to practice as a professional engineer or geoscientist, or eligible to be licensed within six months
- Eight years' experience in environmental consulting, with a minimum of five years' risk assessment experience
- Valid driver's license and flexibility to travel

Experience:

- Experience in phased site investigations, human health risk assessment, ecological risk assessment, the development of risk management plans, and the evaluation of remedial options
- Thorough working knowledge of provincial guidelines and regulations relative to the management of contaminated sites
- Proficient in record-keeping, report writing, communications, organization and interpersonal skills
- Demonstrated abilities in working well with clients and regulators as part of the site remediation process