

Senior Energy Project Engineer & Developer - Scarborough, ON

Client is seeking a Project Developer/Energy Engineer to help develop the technical solution, price, sale, and closing of energy efficiency projects to the ultimate satisfaction of the customer. This Project Developer would be responsible for Acquisition Support and development of Energy-related Design-Build Turnkey, scope development and pricing for customers. This position requires mastery of acquisition, technical aptitude, and project management skills. This position also requires the development of sub-contracted engineers and contractors to work with Client on developing projects. The candidate will be required to keep themselves abreast of all available grants and subsidies from utilities and govt organizations, and be able to apply for those same subsidies.

- Exceptional ability, proficiency and experience with computer applications.
- Understanding of Eastern Canadian Construction processes and schedules
- Excellent communication skills and ability to interface professionally with customers.
- HVAC, Lighting, Controls, "Envelope," Construction - Facility Solutions Background & Perspective
- Desire for hands-on project development and customer contact.
- Excellent Communication Skills - Oral, Written, Executive Presentation, Training
- Business Savvy - Financial Selling, Contracts, High-Level Owner
- Proven history of successful energy retrofit projects ( costs and savings )
- Be able to travel by all modes of transportation
- P.Eng status, LEED AP and 10 years experience is a definite asset