

Client is recruiting for Intermediate/Senior Occupational Hygienists to join our team in Calgary, AB and Burnaby, BC.

Responsibilities:

Managing and mentoring professional occupational hygienists and safety specialists Investigates Occupational Health and Safety concerns in diverse occupational environments Develops, reviews, updates, and implements the OHS&E program, including related policies and procedures Provides technical support to incident and near miss reporting, investigations and follows-up on recommendations Conducts regular inspections and audits (internal and COR) Implements industrial hygiene program Conducts hazard analysis, HAZOPS (Hazards Operability Studies) and participates in Job Hazard Analysis Qualifications:

Post secondary education in Occupational Health and Safety or Occupational Hygiene Certification as a CRSP (Canadian Registered Safety Professional), or Registered Occupational ROH (Registered Occupational Hygienist), or CIH A minimum of 8 - 10 years experience A minimum of 5 years experience in an industrial or manufacturing environment Excellent communication, written and verbal, and presentation skills Knowledge of and a thorough understanding of relevant legislation, especially the Occupational Health and Safety Act Training and experience with incident/accident reporting and investigation. Good negotiating skills, tact and diplomacy Excellent attention to detail Ability to cope under pressure Strong interpersonal, presentation and teambuilding skills A self motivated and determined style persuasive and assertive, including decision making abilities Strong computer skills - MS Excel, Word, Project AMEC is committed to the principle of equal opportunity in employment.