

Senior Water & Wastewater Process Engineer- Edmonton, AB

Reporting to Regional Manager, you will:

- Responsibilities
- * Develop and maintain strong client relationships; including managing client expectations.
  - * Manage client expectations and ensure project deliverables, schedules and budget objectives are met.
  - * Apply established project management processes in initiating, planning, executing, controlling and closing projects.
  - * Be responsible for managing assignments relating to review water and wastewater projects including; water treatment plants, water reservoirs and pump houses, sewage treatment plants, lagoons and sewage pumping stations.
  - * Utilize your exposure to hydraulics of piping and pumping systems and storm water management.
  - * Participate in and have the technical abilities to coordinate and prepare proposals, tenders and negotiate contracts.
  - * Conduct engineering studies.
  - * Prepare conceptual and detailed designs.

As the successful candidate you:

- Requirements
- * Have a minimum 12 years' relevant experience
  - * Have a Bachelors degree in Civil, Environmental or Chemical Engineering
  - * Are APEGGA or APEGBC registered or eligible for registration
  - * Have the ability to lead a project team
  - * May provide leadership and direction to junior staff with respect to performance management, training opportunities and ensure branch goals are achieved with a strong emphasis on the business unit goals of growth and profit.
  - * Have exceptional oral and written communication expertise which is complimented with a keen eye for detail.